

We're Looking for Some Exceptional Kids!

Each winner receives $250.

The "On Behalf of Youth" (OBOY) Award Luncheon will highlight seven Exceptional Middle School Youth from Hancock County. This event is a Camp Fire's event to support our work to help youth reach their full potential, and it's a great way to celebrate youth.

Please nominate an exceptional middle school youth from Hancock County in any of the seven categories listed below. If selected, your nominee will be honored at the "On Behalf of Youth" Award Luncheon on May 18, 2018 at Findlay Owens Community College, will be featured in a short video made especially in his or her honor, and will receive a $250 check along with the award designation.

Please don't wait! We need your nomination no later than Friday, March 16, 2018!

Nominee Name

School Nominee Attends

Grade

Parent/Adult Contact Name

Phone #

Parent/Adult Postal Address

Parent/Adult Email

Recipients will be selected according to the following categories. Check one or more that apply and then complete page 2 with supporting detail:

- Youth Development: Nominee helps others learn through tutoring, volunteerism, coaching, etc.; shares a hobby or skill with others on a regular basis; is a good student; works with younger children in a learning environment.
- Talents & Skills: Shows exceptional talent in the performing or visual arts; demonstrates dedication through practice, workshops, performances.
- Leadership/Community Service: Demonstrates positive leadership skills in school, church, clubs, teams; has a record of volunteerism.
- Family Development: Has helped his or her family overcome a crisis; is responsible for or with younger siblings; works to contribute to family finances; helps care for parent or grandparent.
- Nature: Works to protect the environment; has a talent for raising plants and animals; develops or participates in school programs for environmental awareness, recycling, or gardening.
- Advocacy: Committed to a cause, speaks out on issues important to them and their community; involved in school government; works to 'make a difference.'
- Diversity: Celebrates diversity and promotes intercultural/interracial understanding and friendship in school and in the community; dedicated to learning about another culture or language; accepts/engages those with characteristics and qualities different from their own.

Continue by completing the back side of this form.

