

Individual Scholarship Guidelines/Application

Camp Fire Northwest Ohio provides scholarships to assist youth in attending our Camp Fire programs. Camp Fire raises fund through donations by individuals, organizations and businesses to provide financial assistance for families that are financially unable to send their youths through our programs. The guidelines are as follows:

Individual Application:

Individual applicants include youth in rising Pre K -12th grade; current participation in a Camp Fire program is not required. Scholarships will be allocated based on the available funds and Camp Fire's scholarship fee schedule. If awarded a Scholarship, you will receive an email notification with Scholarship information and instructions on registering your child online

If Utilizing Camp Glen Facility, a completed medical form and insurance information is required. Campers must be able to function independently in a group and abide by guidelines outlined within the Code of Conduct Each Child is required to have a Code of Conduct outlining behavior expectations signed by the child and parent / guardian prior to their arrival at Camp Fire Northwest Ohio. Parent/Guardian(s) are responsible for ensuring their Child is fully prepared along with returning all of the required paperwork prior to their visit. Camp Fire Northwest Ohio does provide transportation for Camp Glen only from Camp Fire office.

Application Process:

Complete the enclosed application along with the following:

1. Letter of explanation/need
2. Copies of all the following:
 - Last 4 paystubs
